

A vertical strip of fabric showing various textures and colors. The top section is white with a fine, regular weave. Below this is a light blue section with a similar fine weave. The next section is a tan or light brown color, also with a fine weave. This is followed by a section of the same tan color but with a more pronounced, slightly coarser weave. Below that is a bright yellow section with a fine weave. The bottom-most section is a dark red or maroon color with a fine weave. The entire strip is bordered by a dark red material on the left and right sides.
